

Tour of the Tagus Wine

Alpiarça / Almeirim / Muge

Program available from monday to friday

Minimum 2 people / Maximum 8 people

From 108 euros

There are farms on the south bank of the Tagus full of history, with a long agricultural tradition and wine producers. The wines, white and red, come from national and world grape varieties with great aptitude. There are many wines produced in the Tagus. From the famous white to the red wines, not forgetting the liqueurs or the sparkling wines.

All unique, and each with very own characteristics that make every Tagus wine special. The cellars open their doors and invite you to come and taste the nectar of the Gods.

PROGRAM

09H00 Starting from Santarém.

Quinta da Lagoalva- Alpiarça- visit the farm and wine tasting

Quinta do Casal Branco- Almeirim- lunch

Casa Cadaval- Muge- wine tasting

What is included

Lunch

All wine tastings

What is not included

Tour Description

In the morning visit to Quinta da Lagoalva, visit the countryside, the Quinta chapel, the stable, wine cellar and wine tasting accompanied by olive oil and sausages.

We continue to Quinta do Casal Branco where we will stay for lunch and visit the Quinta. To finish the day, we will finish with a last wine tasting at Casa Cadaval in Muge.